Embrace the Challenge. Enrich Your Future.

Dear Students,

Welcome to the Honors College at GCU! Our mission is to ensure our ambitious and gifted students continue to develop as servant leaders and change agents in their local and global communities.

Our advice to you this year: get comfortable with being uncomfortable. The Honors College administration and student leaders have worked tirelessly to prepare ample professional and leadership development opportunities, expert speaker seminars, programming within our clubs and societies, social gatherings and more just for you. You will get out exactly what you put into your Honors experience. Step outside your comfort zone and get involved. Not sure where to start? Just ask!

Between the P.A.C. Professional Development Program, the Pre-Health Graduate and Medical School Preparation Program, short-term global education programs, mission trips and internship opportunities, there is something for everyone. We look forward to engaging you in our college and hope to see you taking advantage of these unique resources this academic year.

Lopes up!

RESEARCH DESIGN PROGRAM: COLLEGE OF SCIENCE, ENGINEERING AND TECHNOLOGY

The GCU Research and Design Program (RDP) offers hands-on mentored training and learning experiences for students studying science, engineering or technology. Although it's not required to major in one of these fields, honors students are strongly encouraged to apply for these various research opportunities as early as freshman year. In this program, students are expected to contribute directly to current research and design projects led by faculty while learning various research techniques and methodologies. Students will present both locally and on larger platforms across the country.

Email GCUHonors@gcu.edu for more information.

INSIDE ENTERTAINMENT: SPEAKER SERIES

Join this monthly speaker series supported by the College of Arts and Media and the Honors College. Meet entertainment, marketing and advertising industry experts from all over the world to discuss all things performing arts, production, digital media and film, working in the entertainment industry and beyond. No RSVP or registration needed. Text @CAMSeries to 81010 for text alerts on all events!

First Speaker Event: Tuesday, Sept. 27 | Time: 4:30 – 5:00 PM | Location: Technology Building 57-231

"To walk the streets of Florence and tour the Roman Forum, where centuries of transformative thinkers, Renaissance artists, political masterminds and great nations walked, talked and altered human history was an unreal experience. We were witnessing the foundations of Western thought and culture by visiting such incredible cities. Additionally, being surrounded by different languages, mannerisms and foods truly immersed us all into the European experience that is so different from our own. All in all, this trip made history come alive and I am so happy that I got to see things I've only studied in books!"

— Savannah Miles, Bachelor of Arts in History, Class of 2023

Traditional Study Abroad Opportunities

GCU partners with six prominent study abroad providers and one international internship provider to offer students exciting study abroad program opportunities that count as earned credit within their program of study. These semester-long, full-year and summer experiences are located at approved foreign universities and companies worldwide.

Weekly Study Abroad Information Sessions

Learn about more opportunities by emailing StudyAbroad@gcu.edu or attending an info session. Info sessions are held every Monday at 3 pm starting Sept. 12 in Technology Building 57-235.

NEW Signature Program! Living and Learning International: Honors College Global Fellowship

Join a cohort of GCU honors students in Rome, Italy, Quito, Equator or Baltimore, Maryland for a semester abroad as they embrace adventure and explore the world. Earn up to 20 transferable college credits, intern within your desired industry and experience Christian fellowship within the community. Contact StudyAbroad@gcu.edu for more information.

Study Abroad Fair: Nov. 14

Have you thought about studying abroad but aren't sure where to start? Join us for the study abroad fair, where students can meet representatives from our study abroad providers. Learn about their unique programs and hear from other GCU departments encouraging and supporting international learning.

<sup>1</sup>Price may vary pending airfare rates and the final number of participants per short-term global studies program.

MEET YOUR HONORS COLLEGE STUDENT ADVISORY BOARD

The Honors College is a vibrant, tight-knit community that offers numerous opportunities each year for students to support one another academically while creating lifelong friendships. The Honors College Student Advisory Board (SAB) works directly with our honors administration, faculty and student body to plan and launch these exciting new events and opportunities.
