

GCU LIVE LESSONS

GCU Live Lesson opportunities are a chance for your students to dive into potential career fields, develop real skills and learn about potential areas of college study. These no-cost academic experiences are fully virtual and can support your learners from afar.

BRING CAREER PREP INTO YOUR CLASSROOM

Designed specifically for teachers and their students, Live Lessons are 45-minute interactive activities specific to a career path that explores advanced concepts and build hands-on skills.

GCU Live Lessons feature GCU curriculum designed by the university's college experts and faculty and can be hosted in a face-to-face classroom or – for select lessons – a virtual classroom setting.

Lessons are offered in various career-focused tracks, including:

- ▶ Arts and Media
- ▶ Athletics
- ▶ Business
- ▶ Cybersecurity
- ▶ Education
- ▶ Engineering
- ▶ Forensics
- ▶ Graphic Design
- ▶ Health Care
- ▶ Social Sciences
- ▶ Technology
- ▶ Theology

LAST-MINUTE LIVE LESSONS

Last-Minute Live Lessons are provided as an opportunity for educators with unexpected classroom coverage needs. These lessons contain many of the same great activities from our Live Lesson catalog but can be scheduled up to 24 hours before the lesson.
