Interdenominational Community

As an interdenominational university, GCU's community is a product of the wonderful diversity of traditions and denominations that have grown out of the roots of biblical Christianity. Within this rich diversity, the university has consistently cultivated unity around the core doctrines and common practices of the faith.

One Foundation and Christian Fellowship

Our work on campus and within the community flows from a vibrant faith and desire to honor and emulate Jesus Christ in all we say and do. Our Christian convictions, Christ-focused curriculum and service beyond the classroom provide a foundation that is the bedrock of our community and basis for working together.

GRAND CANYON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

At GCU, students can pursue graduate-level opportunities in Grand Canyon Theological Seminary (GCTS), an interdenominational, evangelical seminary that prepares godly leaders for a lifetime of faithful ministry rooted in biblical truth, sound theology and practical wisdom.

GCTS of GCU has been granted full accreditation by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada (ATS). For more information, visit ats.edu.
