

WORSHIP ARTS PROGRAM

GRAND CANYON UNIVERSITY

Discover the worship arts program at GCU — a place where students can get hands-on experience and personalized support to refine their creative talents and honor their love for Jesus Christ. Learn how to harness the power of musical performance and production to inspire Christian prayer and devotion, building a meaningful future rooted in faith and creativity.

WHAT SETS US APART

- Holistic education that integrates hands-on musical experience with a strong theological foundation, preparing students for both creative and ministry roles
- Access to industry-standard digital audio workstations (DAWs), a recording studio and Musical Instrument Digital Interface (MIDI) lab for practical skill building
- Engage in creative projects like Canyon Worship and The Grand Collective, along with a career-focused curriculum that can prepare you for worship leadership, music production and ministry
- A vibrant creative network of clubs like the Songwriters Guild and opportunities to collaborate with peers and industry professionals

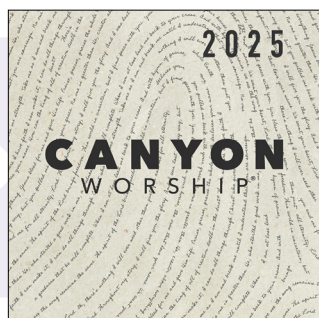

“God is doing something new at GCU! Rivers are flowing from the desert as we train and send worshippers all across the world. The Worship Arts Program is a place for students to grow in their faith by being exposed to theological and technical training. We fully trust our academic community as they foster an environment of growth and creativity for every student.”

— Moises Felipe, Director of Worship Arts

CANYON WORSHIP

The Canyon Worship project is an annual initiative by the Center for Worship Arts, where GCU worship arts students create and release an original worship album, guided by experienced Christian professionals.

Listen to our students' latest worship album at CanyonWorship.gcu.edu

CENTER FOR WORSHIP ARTS

GCU's Center for Worship Arts was built in 2015 to provide worship arts students with the opportunity to perform and lead exciting and transformative worship services among peers.

GCU RECORDING STUDIO

A creative lab where students can bring musical ideas to life, mastering audio recording while collaborating with staff and artists to share their love for music and the gospel. The studio supports recording singles, EPs or full albums.

Learn more at gcu.edu/RecordingStudio

SONGWRITERS LOUNGE

A place to relax and collaborate as you develop your spiritual gifts. Worship arts students meet here for songwriting, group project work, Bible study, academic study and any other activities related to worship arts.

THE GRAND COLLECTIVE

The Grand Collective is a student-driven worship arts project where creativity and collaboration thrive. Each year, students write, perform and produce an original worship EP, guided by industry professionals. Blending talent, teamwork and faith, each release reflects a shared theme that resonates with both artists and listeners.

Scan the QR code to schedule an appointment with a theology program development specialist to learn more about the worship arts degree program at GCU.

Grand Canyon University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLCommission.org), an institutional accreditation agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. Program availability varies and is not offered in all states or modalities. Policy information is available in the University Policy Handbook at gcu.edu/academics/academic-policies.php. Scholarship information is available on gcu.edu. Approved and verified accurate by the Dean of the College of Theology on April 12, 2025. ©2025 Grand Canyon University 24GTR1129