

GRAND CANYON UNIVERSITY

➤ AND HOMESCHOOL FAMILIES

“GCU is like a breath of fresh air because they’re actually looking for homeschoolers. They welcome us and it’s like wow, we can feel at home here and get a really good education.”

– Lucy DiGrazia, GCU Parent

A WELCOMING ENVIRONMENT FOR ALL

Grand Canyon University’s campus is a welcoming environment where all students are invited to get involved in a diverse, faith-oriented community that offers opportunities to pursue their passions, participate in service projects and meet fellow Lopes. We look forward to you making GCU your second home!

FROM YOUR HOME TO CAMPUS EXCELLING AT GCU

GCU is committed to meeting the needs of all students, including those who have received home education. For that reason, we do not require additional testing or validation of a student’s transcripts for acceptance.

ONE-ON-ONE SUPPORT FOR STARTING COLLEGE

GCU understands that acclimating to a traditional college environment can be stressful. To help students with a smooth and informed transition, GCU offers many spiritual life opportunities including Life Groups, Chapel and The Gathering, as well as university counselors who provide personalized services for both students and their families.
