LIVE LESSONS

GCU Live Lessons allow your students to learn about potential career fields, explore their interests and develop practical skills. These complimentary academic experiences are hosted in classrooms or, for select lessons, a virtual classroom setting and aim to support your learners however they need.

BRING CAREER PREP INTO YOUR CLASSROOM

GCU Live Lessons are 45-minute interactive career-specific activities that explore advanced concepts and form hands-on skills. These lessons feature GCU curriculum designed by the university's college experts and faculty specifically for teachers and their students.

Lessons are offered in 35 career-focused tracks, including:

- ▶ Athletics
- ▶ Business and Finance
- ▶ Cybersecurity
- ▶ Education
- ▶ Engineering
- ▶ Forensics
- ▶ Graphic Design
- ▶ Health Care and Medical Studies
- ▶ Justice Studies
- ▶ Psychology
- ▶ Social Sciences
- ▶ Technology

LAST-MINUTE LIVE LESSONS

Many Live Lessons from our catalog can be scheduled in as little as 24 hours before the lesson to help educators with unexpected classroom coverage needs.

VIRTUAL TOURS FOR STUDENTS AND FAMILIES

GCU Live Tours, led by one of our students, give you a sneak peek of GCU's vibrant campus from your smartphone, tablet, computer or classroom.

These live, interactive broadcasts allow you to:

- See our beautiful campus, including new classroom buildings and a residence hall showroom
- Discover our numerous student support resources
- Get an up-close look at life at GCU – often referred to as “Life in Lope Country”
